THE BELL

Inside with sights to thrill your senses. It is our motive of quite showing our appreciation of the patronage of the people. We promised the citizens of Chicago to sell them merchandise for less prices than custom ever, and we have fulfilled the promise. Liberality and generosity are the backbones of our wonderful success. There is not a single item in our trade, by adhering strictly to the fundamental principles that invariably account, honesty and liberality, we are doing a business that is phenomenal.

How We Buy Goods.

We buy for cash and our business is operated by an even, and with our individual capital our affairs are controlled by us absolutely, to the exclusion of Eastern capital and wholesale merchants of New York City. We handle no make of goods to the exclusion of all others, thus furnishing a variety unequaled by agents of Eastern houses. We enter the markets of the world with twelve to one hand and cash in our pockets to take advantage of all bargain-rush offerings. Thus our position as buyers is unsurpassable.

Men's Suits & Overcoats, $15

We put on sale Tomorrow 2,000 Men's Suits and Overcoats which have been selling for $20, $25, and $30, for the paltry sum of $15. They are made up in the very best manner by the best tailors in the country. The Overcoats consist of Melton, Kersmere, Montagnac, Beavers, Vigs, Friars, Chinchillas, and Worsteds, best throughout with Silk, Satin, and Fine Italian Linings. The Suits come in Fine All-Wool Imported Tweeds, Cheviots, Scotch Cheviots, Worsteds, and Cassimeres, made in Sack, Frock, Cutaway, Chesterfield, or Prince Albert style.

Boys' Suits & Overcoats, $10

Tomorrow and for the remainder of the week you can buy Boys' Suits and Overcoats, for boys 13 to 19 years, that have been selling for $15, $18, $20, $25, for the low price of $10. The Suits are made from French Cheviots, English Worsteds, Scotch Cheviots, and Irish Tweeds, neatly Single or Double Breasted Sack and Cutaway Frock styles. The Overcoats come in all the Popular Styles of Goods and are made up in Long Sacks, Three-quarter Chesterfields, and Short Box Sack Styles. You and better come early Monday, as they cannot last long for this price.

Children's Suits and Overcoats, $5

We will call the attention of mothers who have been in the habit of paying $8, $10, and $12 for Suits and Overcoats for little boys 4 to 12 years, to the Suits and Overcoats we will sell them for $5. They are equal in every respect to those sold for the above mentioned prices. Don't fail to see them. They are made of Fine All-Wool Cassimeres in all the popular patterns. If you are thinking of buying a Dress Suit or Overcoat for your boys do not buy it until you have seen our great Five Dollar line.

AGAINST THE "L" SCHEME.

MR. GREEN'S REASON AS THE STATE STREET CHAMPION.

The Corporation Counsel Holds That the Petition Is Invalid—Views That Have Been Held by the Counsel for a Few Property-Owners—Mr. Green Takes Exception to the Ruling—Action of the Committee on the Matter.

There was another meeting of the Committee on Streets and Alleys South at the City Hall yesterday to pass on the petition for the elevated railroad on State-street and the ordinances which accompanied the petition. All the members of the committee—Ald. Gerik, Vose, Cleary, Capron, Dahlman and Van Pelt—were present. Several aldermen who are friendly to the scheme were in the lobby and mingled among the property-owners who were present in the committee-room during nearly the whole session. The meeting was held behind closed doors. Corporation Counsel Grinnell represented the interests of the property-owners and Van Pelt acted after the manner of the objecting property-owners.

Secretary Van Cleve opened proceedings by reading the opinion of the Corporation Counsel as to the validity of the petition and the legality of the consent for elevated railroads through the property-owners and the "L" Road Company. It was seen from the start that the opinion was against the consent petition, for the benefit of the protestants, and an argument that it would be necessary to go over it item by item was in vain. The Corporation Counsel delivered it.

Mr. Grinnell's opinion.

After stating the law in reference to the sufficiency of petitions for right of way and the principles on which it is based, the opinion goes on to say that "each individual property-owner is allowed one step in advance of a bare majority, and the number of a bare majority of every square and subdivision. The rules as fixed by Special Statutes and ordinances, for the purpose of fixing the number of a bare majority, are not applicable to the petition now before the committee. The petition is not signed by a majority of the property-owners on the line of the proposed road, and is therefore insufficient to authorize the committee to report in favor of the ordinances submitted with it."

Mr. Green's opinion.

The Tribune.

Roosevelt, a long Spanish, to all our greatness
This is the stand of Cleveland. Today to-day
Let us not cower weak to get a second vote,
But boldly for our true cause, the honest cause
And then we fight, and I do.

Stand, I charge this flag once was made
By that one but that Lincoln's hand was stayed
Though for us we may have to go up of
Even I to-day, shall fall and flounder,
And though of the grave are planted one
And thousand of the brave shall come.

THE BLOOM OF MR. PARNELL.

The principal evidence of importance that he expected before the commission examining into the charges of the London Times against Parnell and his associates is that of Capt. O'Shea, the whilom confidant and favorite of Mr. Parnell himself. The intimacy of the Shea fish trader with the married lady has been the common property of conversation this year past. Mr. Parnell is a man of success and eminent social, even to the most disinterested and virtuous of the political antagonists he has served. He lived a private life apart from them. They generally did not have even his address other than Parliament, and even that without and sometimes mysterious. He is to the end. He generally maintained that Capt. O'Shea enjoyed his confidence more secretly.

Capt. O'Shea sat in Parliament by Mr. Parnell's favor. He had not been received, except by chance or company, to take the course to run with the house fish party. He was under special personal obligations to Mr. Chamberlain. On the floor that his attitude to abandonment Mr. Parnell and chagrin Chamberlain. The link these former there was much blood in their veins—perhaps the one of their ancient enemies to contend for—and hostility to a rival. Parnell was the leader of the Irish party, and Chamberlain was of prominence in the English Liberal party. Parnell was the leader of the Irish party because he was the most powerful man in Ireland. Chamberlain was of prominence in the English Liberal party because he was the most powerful man in England

NEW YORK WENT FOR HARRISON.

ALL CHICAGO WILL GO FOR THE HUB

The coming week, for we shall Tomorrow Evening start a sale of Fine Suits and Overcoats outpacing anything of our similar nature ever attempted by any other house in the city. Our Clothing Buyer while in New York recently purchased from the well-famed manufacturers of Fine Tailor-Made Clothing, Cockburns, Combined & Co., 241 to 251 Broadway, the entire production this firm had left on hand, which, on account of the coldness of the season, coupled with the yellow fever scare in the South, thereby causing many of their early season orders to be canceled, left them greatly overstocked, and on that account we purchased these goods at an enormous cut in price, and will offer them day to day the most astounding values in Fine Clothing ever seen in this city at this season of the year.

Eugene Sexton arrived from New York Thursday and has already begun practicing at Handy & Wilson's. He said: "I am one of the seven of the best players in the country who have been invited to participate in the tourney. I have been practicing for it for the last month, and I am in good condition. I am willing to play any man in the world for the championship and the stakes. I have no fear of the result. I am willing to play Vignaux, Garnier, Gallois, Slosson, Maggioli, Schaefer or Dion. H. B. HUMPHREY.

Read before the United Society of London a Paper on the Use of "CARBOLIC WATER," of Which the following is an abstract:

In speaking of Carbolic Gargle it would not use of Carbolic Water a lotion and I will confine myself to those evidences to prove its therapeutic constituent antiseptic.

First are to be mentioned diseases of the mouth, among these and above all the true Chronic Catarrhal inflammation, with accompanying changes of the mucous membrane, the ulceration and gathering of strings and other accessories observe among.

The common victims of the stomach, causing grievous and unbearings, the irritation of the intestines resulting in catarrh of the bowels, and the inflamed mucous membranes are the most victims of all such causes of disease. Only of these good and evidence and true standing, the facts, all thoroughly effective and good. I have myself had the accurate inclusion of the stomach cases, are combined because these symptoms, are mainly known from effects of Carbolic Water. The diuretic effect of the same, to quote action upon the lining of the stomach, and to causing active upon the inflamed membrane are beyond all praise.

LOVE is not compared as arising from an idea of sex and is the result. This theory is supported by the favorable opinion of the Carbolic Powers. Dr. Lang of Vienna found a peculiar disease to conquered, the good effects of Carbolic Powers in consumption, with sore and wounds, when none could.

Carbolic Powers is to attain a more prophetic as new people believe, and is an alternative and stimulative remedy, which destroys and neutralizes other irritants and secures the cessation of all irritant symptoms, and not by active and powerful stimulants, as under so many remedies do. In action a certain, and a cure when allowed a permanent, due to frequently persons have to use the Carbolic Salt, in addition to the waters, as a laxative.

Beware of substitutes. The genuine is bottled under the supervision of the city of Carbolic.

Each bottle has the seal of the city and the signature of "Dunn & Hutchinson Co." and serves, 4 Stanley St., New York, as the word here.

Extreme Comic Effects at the Columbia —"The Belle of Bohemia" and the Couple Who Impersonate the Several Characters—Entertainment of "The Captain of the Kent"—Rare Sports That Will Be Seen in Chicago—Musical Gossip.

"The Belle of Bohemia" was produced Wednesday night at the Columbia, but the musical farce was so incomplete in its construction that it was impossible to pass on the merits of the piece. The performance, which is the work of two playwrights of the English music-hall stage—Adams, Lloyd and Lonnen—was provided by the management of the Columbia with a generous setting. The scenery was beautiful in design and the costumes were in effective contrast to the gaiety of the action, a decided element in the performance, which serves to counteract the influence of the ordinary stage picture of Bohemian life, which makes the average play of that sort dull and gives to the management's scenic the color of reality.

The Bohemian settlement, such as may exist in Soho, the Clerkenwell or Whitechapel districts of London, has always contained the literary Cockney, the long-haired genius known to caricature and to the humorous sketch writer as the "Bohemian Artist," the "Bohemian Author," the "Bohemian Actor," and the "Bohemian Journalist," who is supposed to be a combination of all three. Some one, whether Adams, Lloyd or Lonnen, has evolved the character of a Bohemian Artist, Author, Actor and Journalist, who is a type of that sort, and gave

CHICAGO REAL ESTATE.

AN ACTIVE AND SATISFACTORY MARKET ABROAD AND AT HOME.

Gains Reported Way Beyond the Expectations of Even the Most Sanguine Dealers—Transfers of the Day Foot Up Over $1,000,000—Sales Reported by Auction and Private Brokers—Notes of Additions.

There was a surprising increase in the real estate market last week. While it is understood that most people looked for a good business during the first half of the week, and that the close would naturally witness a falling off, it is apparent that few if any business days in the month of October equaled the last week in point of transactions. The fact is, several deals, that would have materially increased the volume of sales, were not completed in time to be recorded last week, and a large number of sales found their way into the books on Monday. Many people, both in the city and from abroad, who had intended to wait for the Thanksgiving holidays before looking up investments, have changed their minds, and have come to the conclusion that the Queen City is entitled to a larger share of the trade in the way of real estate than it has received in the past. The fact is, the real estate dealers of Chicago have come to the conclusion that the only way to get trade is to work for it, and the result is that the brokers who entertain to that opinion are more than repaid for their labors. Other dealers from abroad are coming to the city to look up investments, and there has consequently arisen a demand for property that has caused many of the dull to the only
